

Look for 30th Straight Victory

NETTERS GUN FOR WIN

The Pioneer tennis juggernaut, reaching for its 30th straight victory, is primed for the onslaught of a well-balanced University of New Mexico tennis squad in matches today and tomorrow on the Pioneer courts. Match time today is 2:00 and 9:30 tomorrow morning on the newly surfaced courts at S. Vine and Josephine.

Returning from their most recent conquests at Laramie, Wyoming, the Pioneers are set to throttle the Lobos by even greater scores than they posted in their first matches in March. The Lobos were the first school on the Pioneers' schedule this year and therefore the first to feel the telling effects of tennis as it is played at DU. They were undermined by tallies of 5-4 and 6-3.

Benham was momentarily displaced from his throne last week when he was edged by Jim Herd of Wyoming. Herd exhibited a dazzling serve and 7-5 and 6-3.

Team scores for both days found the Hilltopped tennis technicians out in front by margins of 7-2 on Friday and 8-1 on Saturday.

Irwin Hoffman revenged his earlier defeat at the racket of John Watts during the April clash of Wyoming and Denver by posting scores of 6-0 and 6-1 against Watts.
