WHAT'S THIS? TENNIS IN A BOAT?

Professional Irvin Hoffmann (left) solved a dilemma of not having enough tennis courts for the Green Gables Invitational Doubles tournament by boating players across the lake to play some matches on a private court. Ready for trip are (from left) Susie Rudd, Barbara Barker, Betty Barker and Nancee Bershoff.

Upsets Rule Courts In Junior Doubles

Two top-seeded teams bit the dust Friday in semifinal play of the Junior Invitational doubles tennis tournament at the Green Gables Country Club.

John Malo and Mark McClintock lost 6-3, 4-6, 6-3 to the third-seeded team of Bob Cook and Rocky Finegold in the boys 14 and under division, while in the boys 16 bracket, Ed Reed and Wayne Leiser were toppled 1-6, 6-0, 6-3 by third-seeded Mike Wilson and Roger Levy.

Ironically, Malo and his partner Dinah Warren eliminated Finegold and Jody Ball 6-1, 6-3 in mixed 14 doubles Friday and will face McClintock and his partner, Wendy Baker, in Saturday's finals.

Leiser, Colorado State boys 16 champion, also was to face Levy again Saturday as both advanced with their partners into the mixed 16 doubles finals. Leiser's teammate is Nancee Bershoff and Levy's is Carol Bailly.

In another bit of upset irony Friday, Gary Ormsbee lost a match to Dan Levin and won one with him.
